

I agree with the American Radio Relay League and support RM-10413, a petition to re-allocate the NOVICE sub-bands on 80, 40 and 15 meter HF bands. I believe this proposal has been well-formed and is based on significant input from the Amateur Radio community.

Novice CW activity on these bands is extremely rare. The re-allocation will put these frequencies to better use.